New company spokesman for ALPINE Construction

► ALPINE brings Mag. Johannes Gfrerer (39) to its headquarters in Salzburg

SALZBURG. ALPINE Holding GmbH, one of Europe's biggest construction companies with over 15,000 employees in more than 30 countries, has brought 39-year-old Johannes Gfrerer to the ALPINE headquarters in Wals/Salzburg as the new company spokesman. Born in Salzburg, Gfrerer studied communication sciences and was formerly the spokesman for the Austrian Federal Railway (ÖBB) in Vienna for ÖBB's personal transportation division and the RCA freight service. Gfrerer served as ÖBB's regional spokesman for the State of Salzburg from 2000 to 2010.

The Austrian ALPINE Construction Company is a global player

The Austrian ALPINE Construction Company is a member of the FCC Group and has built roads, motorways, power plants, stadiums, railways and subways, bridges, residential, commercial and industrial buildings around the world. Together with its subsidiary, ALPINE-ENERGIE, it promotes the construction and development of sustainable, alternative energies and energy networks. Approximately half of the construction output of over 3 billion euros is generated in Austria's domestic market. ALPINE has won international acclaim with foreign projects: ALPINE is responsible for the construction of three stadiums for the 2012 European Football Championships in Poland as well as subway lines in New Delhi and Singapore, the Bulgarian hydraulic power plant in Tsankov Kamak and hundreds of other construction projects of every type and size.
