ALPINE Bau Golf Trophy: construction pros swing their clubs

Zell am See: ALPINE Bau Salzburg hosted its Golf Trophy at the Zell am See/Kaprun Golf Club for the first time. Nearly 100 business partners and friends were invited to demonstrate their skills on the lawn or to play their first round of golf in the sunny Salzach valley. The participants fought to improve their score at the Stableford tournament, surrounded by the stunning mountain panorama of the "Hohe Tauern" National Park. An exhibition by the Salzburg artist, Friedrich Schilcher, showed stainless steel sculptures in a class of their own.

"When you work a lot you're entitled to take some time off for sports. This wonderful environment gives us an opportunity to combine sport and culture," explained Josef Rettenwander, branch manager of ALPINE Bau Salzburg and Golf Trophy organizer.

With 25 and 30 gross points, Jana Stich and Siegfried Pichler were the tournament winners. The sports event was rounded off by an amusing prize award ceremony, followed by an Italian dinner and lively entertainment program.

Guests at the ALPINE Bau Golf Trophy included:

Dr. Michael Pallauf and his wife, LAbg. Dr. Brigitte Pallauf
Siegfried Pichler, President, Chamber of Labor
Konrad Erlmoser, State Director, BAWAG Salzburg
