PRESS RELEASE

ALPINE to build motorway section in Romania

- 16.6-km section in western Romania
- Contract value approx. EUR 91 million (RON 411.5 million)
- 22 months of construction

Salzburg: ALPINE Bau GmbH recently signed a contract with CNADNR, the Romanian Highway Administration, to design and build a 16.6-km stretch of two-lane motorway in central/western Romania. The contract value is approx. EUR 91 million. The time required to plan and build the section from Nadlac to Arad will take approx. 22 months. "This contract allows us to participate in the surging traffic route engineering sector in Romania and expand our presence in the Romanian market," said a pleased Roman Esterbauer, member of the ALPINE Bau GmbH management.

Arad - Nadlac motorway section

Lot 2 of the Arad Nadlac motorway section is located in western Romania and starts north of Pecica. The two-lane motorway to be built by APINE will have a length of 16.6 km and is one of three sections with a total length of 220 kilometers. The other sections from Orastie to Sibiu (approx. 88 km) and from Lugoj to Deva (approx. 99 km) will be built at the same time. The project includes several bridges and overpasses as well as two parking lots and a highway maintenance depot.

On the road to success in Romania

ALPINE has already completed a number of successful projects in Romania over the past few years. The construction of three landfills in the Romanian county of Suceava for 22 million euros, the construction of Petrom City, the new headquarters of the Romanian oil company, Petrom S.A., the largest gas and oil producer in southeast Europe, and the Centura beltway in Bucharest are some of its prestigious projects. ALPINE currently employs a staff of approx. 400 in Romania.

The Austrian ALPINE company, a member of the FCC Group, is a global player. With a construction output of EUR 3.2 billion in 2010 and a staff of 15,100, ALPINE is the second largest construction company in Austria. For more information visit www.alpine.at.
